HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

THE DOINGS OF A WEEK AT THE CENTRAL SCHOOL BUILDING.

THE BASKET BALL DATES

Series of Five Games Arranged With Normal Second Team—Delightful Entertainment Wednesday.

A number of Normal students were visitors at the high school on Monday. They were Fred Lewis, Elmore Frank, Fred Bellows, Kirby Taylor, Misses Gladys Yeaman and Helen Purcell.

Miss Margaret Thompson of the science department, accompanied by the physical geography class which she teaches, went on an expedition Friday afternoon to obtain rock specimens and make weather observations. They visited a rock out-crop on East Fourth street and obtained several interesting specimens.

Miss Allie Frazer and Miss Ada Clayton, members of the May graduating class, and Miss Orleana Helpley, a former high school student, were visitors at the high school Wednesday.

The students and faculty were most delightfully entertained, indeed, during the assembly hour on Wednesday by Miss Lottie Perrin and Miss Birde Sheldon of the Conservatory of Music faculty, and Mr. Lona Perrin, a graduate of the high school and a member of the Northwest Normal male quartette. Mr. Perrin sang two groups of songs, and in response to the hearty applause generously sang several encores, the songs being well chosen and delightfully rendered, and were fully appreciated by the students. Mr. Perrin made a decided hit. The piano duet by Miss Perrin and Miss Sheldon was very well received, too, so well, in fact, that they were obliged to play again. The program was indeed a musical treat and was as follows:

Songs—
With You, Dear..... Scott
Irish Love Song..... Lang
Four Leaf Clover..... Coombs
Requiem..... Homer
Mr. Perrin.

Piano numbers—
Overture, from Romeo and Juliet..... Bellini
Military March..... Shubert

Miss Perrin and Miss Sheldon.
Mrs. Mary Funk of King City, the guest of W. C. Frank and family, was a visitor at the high school Wednesday.

Representatives from the high school were sent on Thursday evening to confer with the representatives of the Normal, Business college and Company F in regard to a city basketball league. As the Business college did not enter, that plan was abandoned, and a series of five games with the Normal second team was decided upon by the high school. They will be played in the Normal gymnasium on the following dates: November 23, 28; December 7, 14, 21. A series of three games will be scheduled with the representative five of the Normal a little later in the season.

The prospects for a fast high school team begin to look better as the practice continues. The team showed an unexpected class in a practice game this week, and the games with the Normal teams should give them the experience they will need for their out-of-town games. The first team and substitutes are: Fred Hutchinson, Roy David, Jesse Strader, John Taylor, Howard Leach, Horace Gibson and Orlo Quinn, captain.

Adjudged Insane.

The case of Mrs. Mattie L. Pixler was before the probate court Saturday. A jury was impaneled which, after hearing the evidence, adjudged her insane. A guardian will be appointed, if one can be found to serve, otherwise it will likely be necessary for the public administrator to take charge of her affairs. Mrs. Pixler was for a time at the St. Joseph hospital for the insane, but was released about three years ago, since which time she has occupied her home at the corner of First and Market streets alone.

Mrs. W. L. Bush of Clearmont, who attended the funeral services of Mrs. J. F. Robb at Hopkins Friday afternoon, returned to Maryville Friday evening. Her mother, Mrs. G. Maier of this city, who accompanied her, remained to visit her son, Joseph Maier, and family, who live near Hopkins.

Old Time Ham Curing.

After the meat has become perfectly cold, rub on a tablespoonful of salt-pepper, and salt well with fine salt. Re-salt the third day. Let the meat remain in salt fifteen days if weather is warm, if cold 20 days. Then wash well, pepper with black pepper and hang up to smoke until brown. The fire should be smothered with oak or hickory chips that have been soaked in water. If the hams can be hung ten or fifteen feet above the smoke, all the better. After smoking put hay around the ham and hang in a bag.

"THE ROSE MAIDEN" FOR STEALING HOG

COWEN'S GREAT ORATORIO MEETS ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION

GEO. BRAGG GETS PENITENTIARY SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS.

CHOIR OF SIXTY VOICES MADE A PLEA OF GUILTY

Soloists and Chorus Presented Their Parts Perfectly and Deserve the Highest Praise.

Cowen's great oratorio "The Rose Maiden" was presented at the First Christian church Friday night before a large audience. Mr. H. J. Becker, director of the choir of sixty voices that rendered the beautiful story, and Dr. D. J. Thomas, who played the difficult accompaniment in a masterly way, are highly commended for the high degree of musical perfection with which it was rendered. The chorus work was in perfect unison and showed a fine balance of parts that is rarely equalled in towns the size of Maryville. We are not critic enough to go into detail and tell the many excellent portions of the production from a musical standpoint, but from the standpoint of a mere lover of music the work of the chorus was as well, if not better, done than anything that has been heard here, and it was certainly the most difficult piece attempted by local people.

The solos were splendidly done, as everyone knew they would be, as all are singers who delight our people with their singing every time they appear. Their interpretation of their parts was most satisfactory, and they are being complimented heartily for their unusually good work of Friday night.

Everyone in the audience was presented a program with the complete story of the oratorio, given in the order in which it was sung, and it was easy to follow the changing scenes in the life of Roseblossom, as the music and words clearly interpreted by the director and his singers. The Queen of the Flower Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, prays of the newly returned Spring that he will bestow upon her also the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her while she sleeps into the form of a beautiful girl. Under the name of Roseblossom, she wanders through the world to find the love that she seeks, loses her senses and dies broken-hearted. But, undeterred from her search, Roseblossom becomes the wife of a forester, with whom she lives for a time in such perfect happiness that she cannot survive his death. The elves bewail the fate of their Queen, and curse love as fatal to peace and happiness.

Mr. Becker expects to present "The Holy City" with his chorus in a few months, which will be even more difficult and beautiful than "The Rose Maiden." His chorus is certainly in fine training for its rehearsal, and we predict still greater success for them. The soloists and members of the chorus were:

Soloists—Mrs. F. P. Robinson and Mrs. D. J. Thomas, soprano; Miss Lillian Lindholm, contralto; H. J. Becker basso.

Dr. D. J. Thomas, accompanist.

During the business session the heads of three committees were appointed—Mrs. John Awalt for the miscellaneous sale of aprons and fancy work, Mrs. Raymond Barry for the candy department, and Mrs. W. WOODSON SMITH SUITS SETTLED.

Insurance Suits in Which Former Maryville Man Was Involved Settled After Several Trials.

All the suits brought by the Woodson Smith Hat company of Kansas City against sixteen insurance companies to collect for damages caused by a fire May 30, 1910, were settled Friday. The Woodson Smith Hat company sued for $52,000, of which $42,000 was for actual damages and $10,000 for interest charges and attorney's fees. Sixteen separate suits were brought. Eight had been tried, the hat company winning six and the insurance companies winning two. The cases have been tried before Judge Lucas.

The ninth case came to trial Friday and the attorneys for the insurance companies offered to settle the entire matter. Settlement was made for $30,827.61.

Knights of Pythias Elect Officers.

Tancred Lodge, No. 84, Knights of Pythias, at their regular meeting Friday night initiated one or two new members into the mysteries of the order and elected officers for the coming year. READY TO ACT SOON

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS WILL COMMENCE NEGOTIATIONS.

PRELIMINARY DATA HERE

Full Report of Engineers Expected Immediately—Will Ask for Proposition From the Company.

It is probable that actual negotiations between the board of public works and the owners of the city water plant will soon begin. While the board is not yet in possession of the final and complete reports from their engineers, they have received some preliminary estimates, which they are studying, and they hope to soon have complete and definite figures on which to proceed. Mr. McDonald of the firm of Burns & McDonald was here in conference with the board Friday afternoon, and the board expects to have his complete report at an early date.

With this in hand they will endeavor to get a proposition from the water company for the sale of their plant, and, if it sounds reasonable, all hands can get down to brass tacks. The board is proceeding carefully and cautiously and desires to have its information well in hand before taking definite steps.

B. F. C's Meet.

The B. F. C. met Friday night with Forrest Gillam. After the usual business session there was a debate on the subject, "Resolved, that Lee was a greater general than Washington." Goff Crawford and Kenneth Van Cleve had the affirmative and James Gray and Will Hutchison the negative. The affirmative won. New officers were elected as follows: President, James Gray; vice president, Forrest Gillam; secretary, Will Hutchison; sergeant-at-arms, Charles Aiken. They will meet again in two weeks with Phil Colbert.

Left for California.

Mrs. Ellen Goslee of Oakland, Calif., who has been in the city the past two days on business relative to the estate of her late father, Nathan Goslee, left for her home Saturday morning. She is delighted with her home in the land of sunshine and balmy breezes and would not bear think of returning to this changeable climate. She enjoyed her short stay in her former home very much, however, and was glad to meet old friends and acquaintances.

Went to St. Joseph.

Mrs. W. E. Goforth and children went to St. Joseph Saturday morning to spend the day with Mr. Goforth's sister, Miss Lola Goforth, who is taking treatment in a hospital there. They will return to Bolckow Saturday night for an over-Sunday visit with Mr. Goforth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goforth, where Mr. Goforth will meet them.

Accompanied Daughter Home.

J. E. Wyatt of Arkoe was in Maryville Friday attending to business matters. He was accompanied home by his daughter, Miss Edith Wyatt, a State Normal student, who will spend the week end at home.

Senator Aldrich's plan to legalize the money monopoly and the New York bankers' control of the country failed to receive endorsement at the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress at Kansas City.

Colonel Roosevelt has written an article for the Outlook which is taken to mean that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency. He bitterly arraigns the attempted prosecution of the trusts by the present administration, and declares the prosecutions should be stopped. It will be remembered that Teddy, when president, vociferated loudly against the trusts, but never did them any harm. Instead of that he permitted the organization of the steel trust, and in the above mentioned article denies that he was misinformed as to its results, and attempts to justify his act. Colonel Roosevelt believes in ruling with the "big stick," but he has very little respect for lawsuits. Mr. Taft, if he knew how, would like to be president. Roosevelt would like to be emperor. The party can take its choice next summer.

TOBACCO TRUST STILL A TRUST.

In the opinion of many students of the trust question the tobacco trust is the victor. That is the real meaning they give the approval by the United States circuit court of New York of the tobacco trust's reorganization plan. The tobacco trust is to remain.

Competition is not restored. The stock ownership is not divided. The actual activities of manufacture and distribution are not even placed under different supervisions. The circuit court politely declines the responsibility of making an order which shall make the business of the tobacco trust fulfill the supreme court's interpretation of the Sherman law. Discussing the possibility of ordering a receivership and the sale of the tobacco trust properties, the lower court says it could not prevent the present owners from bidding in the property if they were so inclined. In other words the tobacco trust is not "busted." Indeed, it is scarcely scratched.

WHAT THE PEOPLE PAY.

The people of the United States pay a subsidy, in artificially high prices, to the wool industry, of at least $104,000,000 a year, according to the calculations of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives.

"The Payne-Aldrich tax of 61 cents per yard, to say nothing of any increase in tax at it passes to the jobber, makes not less than $104,000,000 paid each year to subsidize the wool industry of America," says Mr. Underwood. "Now, the entire duties actually paid the United States on all imports of woolens and worsteds in 1910, amounted to less than $15,500,000, which means that of the $104,000,000 extorted from the consumers of woolens nearly $90,000,000 went to the wool interests."

"Is it fair or just or right to maintain these enormous taxes unduly to foster the business of less than one-fourth of 1 per cent of the people and to require 99% per cent to stagger under this enormous burden? I for one do not believe the American people will justify the president in his veto of the wool schedule."

Mrs. G. A. Hartman went to Barnard Saturday morning for a week-end visit with her daughter, Mrs. O. E. Miller.

H. Gilbert, Mrs. I. G. Murphy, Miss Pearl Daniels, Miss Shroyer, Miss Myrl Oberle, Miss Daisy Allen, Mrs. C. D. The Ladies' Aid society of the First Christian church served a splendid four-course banquet to the singers after the entertainment in the church parlors. It was a fine social affair, one of the most successful that has been given at this church for some time. Attorney M. E. Ford, bachelor, acted the part of toastmaster to perfection. On introducing some of the speakers he gave expression to a number of things that seemed to weigh upon him at the time, amid the very delightful surroundings, that he may wish to take back on sober second thought. Anyway, he was a success, everybody at the banquet said. Some excellent toasts were responded to by Miss Helen Leffler, Rev. Claude J. Miller, W. H. Charlton, W. E. Goforth, J. R. Brink, H. J. Becker, W. H. Crawford and Mr. Gallagher, that handsome big tenor singer. It is hoped that all the fine things said in the speeches, as a result of the delicious banquet served, will be realized, barring, of course, the Mormonistic tendencies that Toastmaster Ford gave expression to, being unduly excited in the presence of so much levity.

BALL ANNOUNCES PLATFORM.

Perennial Gubernatorial Candidate Believes People Should Rule.

Montgomery, Mo.—David A. Ball,

who says he will be a candidate for governor of Missouri again, gives out this statement of the platform on which he will make the canvass for the Democratic nomination:

"I am a great believer in the doctrine that the people should rule in all things. Therefore, I believe in the doctrine of the initiative, referendum and recall. I believe in local self-government. I believe that every person should have the right to do as he pleases, providing he does not interfere with the right of any one else. I believe in maintaining the educational institutions of this state and making them second to none in the Union, but not to the detriment of the common schools of the state. I am opposed to the inheritance tax law now upon the statute books of this state, and favor its repeal or amendment, so that an individual can give 5 per cent of his estate to any school that the donor sees proper.

"I believe in caring for the very best advantage the insane people of the state, furnishing to those unfortunate people the very best medical talent possible and giving them all the comforts it is possible to surround them with. And I believe that this should be done by the state."

SAID SHE WOULD FAINT

Mrs. Della Long Unable to Stand
On Her Feet More Than a Few Minutes at a Time.

Pendergrass, Ga.—Mrs. Della Long, of this place, in a recent letter, says: "For five or six years, I suffered agonies with womanly troubles.

"Often, I couldn't sit up more than a few minutes at a time, and if I stood on my feet long, I would faint.

I took Cardui, and it helped me immediately. Now, I can do my work all the time, and don't suffer like I did."

Take Cardui when you feel ill in any way—weak, tired, miserable, or under the weather. Cardui is a strength-building tonic medicine for women.

It has been found to relieve pain and distress caused by womanly troubles, and is an excellent medicine to have on hand at all times.

Cardui acts on the womanly constitution, building up womanly strength, toning up the nerves, and regulating the womanly organs.

Its half century of success is due to merit. It has done good to thousands.

Will you try it? It may be just what you need. Ask your druggist about Cardui. He will recommend it.

YOUR GRAY HAIRS QUICKLY VANISH

A Harmless Remedy, Made from Garden Sage, Restores Color to Gray Hair.

A feeling of sadness accompanies the discovery of the first gray hairs, which, unfortunately, are looked upon as heralds of advancing age. Gray hairs, however, are not always an indication of advancing age, for many people have gray hairs quite early in life. Of course, it is unnatural, and indicates that there is something wrong with the individual, and that nature needs assistance in correcting the trouble. The same is true of hair that is constantly falling out and becoming thinner every day. If everything is right with nature, the hair, even in comparatively elderly people, should be long, thick and glossy, without even a streak of gray.

The ideal assistant to nature is in restoring and preserving the hair is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, a clean and wholesome dressing for daily use. It not only removes dandruff, but strengthens weak, thin and falling hair and promotes its growth. A few applications will restore faded or gray hair to its natural color.

Get a bottle today, and let it do for you what it has done for thousands of others.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agents, Koch Pharmacy.

Miss Bertha Hale, a State Normal student, went to her home, near Barnard, Saturday morning to spend Sunday with her parents and to meet her little niece, who is visiting there from St. Joseph.

Will you have the fancy work, useful articles, harvest home, ice cream and candy booths again this year?

Yes. If any difference they will be BETTER than ever this year.

How about the entertainments this year?

Yes. Miss Nellie Wray has charge of this feature, and that assures their success.

Thanks. Mrs. Mutz, I am arranging to patronize the bazaar this year. Don't want to miss anything. Will tell my friends. I can hardly wait for it to commence. Wish you success. Good-bye.

Postoffice Inspector Says She Had Been Warned Before—Miss Braymer Believes Charge Result of Spite Against Father.

Braymer, Mo., Nov. 18.—Miss Stella Braymer, daughter of Daniel Braymer, one of the founders of the town of Braymer, and one of the richest men in Caldwell county, was arraigned before A. S. VanValkenburgh, United States judge, at Kansas City, charged with using canceled stamps for postage. She pleaded not guilty and was released on a $500 bond signed by her brother, George E. Braymer.

An indictment was returned by the recent federal grand jury charging Miss Braymer with using canceled postage stamps. Miss Braymer, it is charged, used the canceled stamps in her private correspondence. She is heir to an estate valued at $150,000.

Miss Braymer, who is 35 years old, is prominent in social and club circles here and took her attorney to Kansas City with her after the arrest.

The indictment against Miss Braymer is six counts, each charging that letters sent by her to persons in different parts of the United States were mailed with stamps previously canceled, but with the cancellation marks wholly or partly erased.

It is the contention of the government that Miss Braymer has been practicing this sort of fraud on the government for nearly five years.

William Brownlow, postoffice inspector at Kansas City, who made the investigation of the case, said that Miss Braymer had been suspected before and had been warned.

Miss Braymer, however, maintains that she is guilty of no offense.

"It is all spite work," Miss Braymer explained. "Just because my father attempted to do things for the town he founded and because he became wealthy he made a great many enemies. He has a great many friends there, too. So there is a feud in the town."

"Not long ago a woman came to my father and told him a story concerning a man in the town. Just because my father tried to do something for the woman the man became our enemy. It is this man, I am sure, who had the charges brought against me. When I get through with this indictment against me there is going to be trouble for some other person in Braymer."

No Trace of Missing Man.

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 18.—All efforts to unravel the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Raymond B. Frost of Sioux City, September 3, have been fruitless. Mr. Frost was 27 years old and was in the employ of a Chicago publishing house. No reason for his disappearance has been found. Friends fear he may have been injured and search is being made in hospitals.

She Wanted no Women Jurors.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 18.—Mrs. Sarah C. Costello, defendant in a suit in the superior court involving $500, instructed her counsel to excuse from the jury box two women. She accepted a jury composed entirely of men.

Oklahoma Postoffice Robbed.

Muskogee, Ok., Nov. 18.—Robbers blew the safe in the postoffice at Hoffman, 20 miles southwest of here, getting all the stamps and money in the office, about $1,000. They stole two horses and rode away.

TEXAS RANGERS TO THE BORDER

Ordered to Prevent Mexican Revolutionary Planning on American Soil.

GOVERNMENT EXPECTS TROUBLE

Return of U. S. Troops to Home Stations Held Up Pending Outcome
—Plot to Cross Border Frustrated.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 18.—Two captains of Texas rangers were ordered to the border, with instructions to prevent any activity in Texas toward starting a revolution in Mexico.

These movements were made after a conference between Gov. Colquitt and Ranger Capt. Hughes, who claims to have evidence that part of the preparations for a Mexican revolution are under way in Texas.

At the conference also were Ranger Capt. Fox and Sanders, and members of the state adjutant general's department.

Fox and Sanders were ordered to the border after the conference.

From a heretofore reliable source, it was learned that Gen. Reyes, now at San Antonio, may be placed under surveillance by Texas authorities. The rangers have been ordered to prevent marauding on the American side of the border.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 18.—Two companies of Mexican cavalry left Piedras Negras, across the Rio Grande from here; one of 90 for Los Vegas, opposite Del Rio, Tex., and another of 80 for Tecas, a small village about 50 miles south of this place.

The precautions were taken to prevent any outbreak. It was reported here that a fight near Tampazos resulted in the killing of several on both sides.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Danger of another well organized and formidable revolutionary movement in Mexico has caused the suspension of the return to their home stations of the American troops sent to the border country during the Madero revolution. The attitude of the United States is one of apprehension of further trouble, against which every precaution is to be taken to assure the strictest neutrality.

Bulletin.
Douglass, Ariz., Nov. 18.—An alleged Magonist plot to cross the Mexican border with a force of 100 men, said to be planning to unite with others coming from Macadori, Mex., has been frustrated at the last minute by special agents of Mexican Consul Questa, aided by officers of the United States.

ST. JOSEPH DODGING MOTOR TAX?

Special Inspector Sent to Find Out
Why so Few Licenses Are Issued There

Jefferson City, Nov. 18.—Secretary Roach has sent a special license inspector to St. Joseph to ascertain why it is that the number of licensed motor cars returned from that city and Buchanan county is only 472, while Kansas City has accounted for 3,126 and Jasper county nearly 800.

The secretary is of the opinion that the local officials of St. Joseph and Buchanan county have not exerted themselves to enforce the motor tax law. He says that the city and county ought to at least return as many licenses as Jasper county.

Work on a Missouri Dam.
Hollister, Mo., Nov. 18.—Construction on the White river dam project south of here, in Taney county, has begun. Sixteen barges are used to convey machinery from the railroad station down the river to the site of the dam. A cotton factory will be established by the promoters of the project. The power will be supplied to many cities in this region.

Seize an Aeroplane for Debt.
St. Joseph, Nov. 18.—An aeroplane upon which A. J. Pruitt, an inventor, had worked for several years and which is almost completed, has been seized by the sheriff, along with all of the inventor's household goods, tools and machinery, to satisfy claims of creditors. The goods, except the flying machine, were sold at auction.

Price Memorial Board Named.
Jefferson City, Nov. 18.—Gov. Hadley has appointed Col. J. D. Ingram of Nevada and M. W. Anderson and Mrs. J. L. Hughes of Keytesville as a board to have charge of the erection of a monument to Gen. Sterling Price at Keytesville, Mo. The last legislature appropriated $5,000 for that purpose.

Start Pythian Home.
Springfield, Mo., Nov. 18.—Ground breaking ceremonies at the starting of the new $100,000 Missouri Pythian home here will be held Wednesday. Among the speakers at the exercises will be: Dermon Raleke, Bethany; Dan V. Herider, Slater; Charles J. Kostuba, St. Louis, and Joseph J. Crites, Rolla.

HYDE JURY PANEL IS NOW COMPLETE

Forty-Seventh Name Added After Weeks of Wrangling.

SECOND TRIAL TO BEGIN MONDAY

Judge Overrules All Motions Pending Before Him—Twenty-Two Venires Have Been Drawn, Including 1,060 Names.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 18.—The 47th jurymen was added to the panel in the Hyde case at 4:15 o'clock and the list was completed. The 47 were called into the courtroom and each was asked the correct spelling of his name and his age. Then they were delivered into the custody of the marshal to be returned to the courtroom after the challenges have been made.

The state will scratch 15 names from the panel and the defense 20.

Judge E. E. Porterfield, the trial judge, ordered the attorneys for the state to return their list to the clerk an hour before the legal limit expires. Then the clerk will deliver the list with the 15 names scratched by the state to the attorneys for Dr. Hyde. The defense will have one hour to strike 20 names from the list.

The defense filed two motions which were overruled by Judge Porterfield. The first was for the court to request the marshal to show the subpoenas and the returns on all witnesses for the state. The second was a motion to quash the panel of 47.

In overruling the motion Judge Porterfield said that he had permitted the deputy marshals to take one man to store to buy an overcoat and another had been taken to a store to buy a pair of shoes. The relatives of the jurymen, he said, had been permitted to talk with them. Then Judge Porterfield formally overruled all motions to quash the venire and all other motions pending before him.

Frank P. Walsh, chief counsel for the defense, said that he might file a motion for the appointment of elisors or might renew the old motion at any time in the trial of the case.

From all indications, the opening statement of the prosecution will be made Monday. Mr. M. will make that statement. He will be followed by Frank P. Walsh for the defense Tuesday. Then Wednesday the taking of evidence will begin and the Hyde trial will be going in full blast. The attorneys for the state say they will call practically the same witnesses as were used at the first trial, with perhaps one or two new ones. The defense will have a few new witnesses.

Since the start of the second trial, 22 venires have been drawn from the jury wheel. The venire included 1,060 names. One venire of 100 was quashed by the court, however, and another of 100 was set aside.

A Modern Bookshop Now.

At Chiswick is a little, old-fashioned bookshop which has lately changed proprietorship and is being "modernized," one-half now given up to stationery and the old books being "cleared," no reasonable offer refused.

The writer thought it a likely place to pick up a good edition of Pepys' Diary, and asked the dapper little proprietor if he had one. "No, sir; but we have Lett's. Oh, I can assure you they are vastly superior to the old-fashioned sort—." And as the writer fled he heard shouts of "Insurance coupon" and "Wages table" hurled after him.—London Chronicle.

The Way It's Done.

"Doctor, I want you to look after my office while I'm on vacation."

"But I've just graduated, doctor. Have had no experience."

"That's all right, my boy. My practice is strictly fashionable. Tell the men to play golf and ship the lady patients off to Europe."

Ivy at a Funeral.

Standing beside a coffin containing the body of her husband, Mrs. Charles Buhland of Indianapolis carried out his last requests. Dressed in white, she sang two hymns, read his requests and delivered a brief eulogy.

Buhland did not want any crepe at the door and he insisted that no black should be worn in mourning for him. He wanted his wife to dress in white. He desired that in the place of somber decorations there should be flowers and other symbols of joy at the funeral.

Buhland was 52 years old and was ill a year before he died.

Fitness.

"Do you think Mrs. Garish's fine plumage looks natural and proper to her style?" said the envious woman.

"Entirely so," replied the woman who was sarcastic. When she puts on one of those elegant ostrich feathers she looks like the original ostrich."

Her Habit.

"I don't like the woman you made me take out to supper. She has such a way of planing you down."

"That's merely a force of habit with her. She's a dressmaker."

Adjudged Insane.

The case of Mrs. Mattie L. Pixler was before the probate court Saturday. A jury was impaneled which, after hearing the evidence, adjudged her insane. A guardian will be appointed, if one can be found to serve, otherwise it will likely be necessary for the public administrator to take charge of her affairs.

Mrs. Mary Funk of King City, the guest of W. C. Frank and family, was a visitor at the high school Wednesday. Representatives from the high school were sent on Thursday evening to confer with the representatives of the Normal, Business college and Company F in regard to a city basketball league. As the Business college did not enter, that plan was abandoned, and a series of five games with the Normal second team was decided upon by the high school. They will be played in the Normal gymnasium on the following dates: November 23, 28; December 7, 14, 21. A series of three games will be scheduled with the representative five of the Normal little later in the season.

The prospects for a fast high school team begin to look better as the practice continues. The team showed unexpected class in a practice game this week, and the games with the Normal teams should give them the experience they will need for their out-of-town games. The first team and substitutes are: Fred Hutchinson, Roy David, Jesse Strader, John Taylor, Howard each, Horace Gibson and Orlo Quinn, captain.

Mrs. Will A. Burris of near Graham was in Maryville Friday and Saturday the guest of her daughter, Miss Helen Burris, a high school student, and her brother, G. B. Holmes, and family.

Miss Elta Wood, a high school student, went to Rosedale Saturday morning to visit over Sunday with the family of her brother, W. B. Wood, a lumber merchant.

Mrs. J. F. McDonald of Omaha, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Lou Fine of Pickering, was in Maryville Friday evening on her way home.

Old Time Ham Curing.

After the meat has become perfectly cold, rub on a tablespoonful of salt-pepper, and salt well with fine salt. Resalt the third day. Let the meat remain in salt fifteen days if weather is warm, if cold 20 days. Then wash well, pepper with black pepper and hang up to smoke until brown. The fire should be smothered with oak or hickory chips that have been soaked in water. If the hams can be hung ten or fifteen feet above the smoke, all the better. After smoking put hay around the ham and hang in a bag.

COWEN'S GREAT ORATORIO MEETS ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION

GEO. BRAGG GETS PENITENTIARY SENTENCE OF TWO YEARS.

CHOIR OF SIXTY VOICES MADE A PLEA OF GUILTY

Soloists and Chorus Presented Their Parts Perfectly and Deserve the Highest Praise.

A Number of Mismated Couples Were Freed From Marital Bonds By Court Saturday.

Cowen's great oratorio "The Rose Maiden" was presented at the First Christian church Friday night before a large audience. Mr. H. J. Becker, director of the choir of sixty voices that rendered the beautiful story, and Dr. D. J. Thomas, who played the difficult accompaniment in a masterly way, are highly commended for the high degree of musical perfection with which it was rendered. The chorus work was in perfect unison and showed a fine balance of parts that is rarely equalled in towns the size of Maryville. We are not critic enough to go into detail and tell the many excellent portions of the production from a musical standpoint, but from the standpoint of a mere lover of music the work of the chorus was as well, if not better, done than anything that has been heard here, and it was certainly the most difficult piece attempted by local people.

The solos were splendidly done, as everyone knew they would be, as all are singers who delight our people with their singing every time they appear. Their interpretation of their parts was most satisfactory, and they are being complimented heartily for their unusually good work of Friday night.

Everyone in the audience was presented a program with the complete story of the oratorio, given in the order in which it was sung, and it was easy to follow the changing scenes in the life of Roselblossom, as the music and words clearly interpreted by the director and his singers. The Queen of the Flower Fairies, weary of a life of unbroken calm, prays of the newly returned Spring that he will bestow upon her also the gift of love that he bestows upon man. He warns her of the risk she runs, but finally yields to her entreaties by changing her while she sleeps into the form of a beautiful girl. Under the name of Roselblossom, she wanders through the world to find the love that she seeks, loses her senses and dies broken-hearted. But, undeterred from her search, Roselblossom becomes the wife of a forester, with whom she lives for a time in such perfect happiness that she cannot survive his death. The elves bewail the fate of their Queen, and curse love as fatal to peace and happiness.

Mr. Becker expects to present "The Holy City" with his chorus in a few months, which will be even more difficult and beautiful than "The Rose Maiden." His chorus is certainly in fine training for its rehearsal, and we predict still greater success for them. The soloists and members of the chorus were:

Soloists—Mrs. F. P. Robinson and Mrs. D. J. Thomas, soprano; Miss Julian Lindholm, contralto; H. J. Becker, basso.

Dr. D. J. Thomas, accompanist.

Mrs. Snapp Was Hostess.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church, South, met at the home of Mrs. John Snapp Friday afternoon in a business and social session and furthered their plans for their Christmas sale to be given the 16th and 17th of December. During the business session the heads of three committees were appointed—Mrs. John A. Wait for the miscellaneous sale of aprons and fancy work, Mrs. Raymond Barry for the candy department, and Mrs. W. T. Gray for the market. All the committees will be announced as soon as appointed. The ladies also decided to serve refreshments free to all who attend their sale. After the business was finished the rest of the afternoon was devoted to a delightful social time. The hostess served refreshments, and Mrs. Oscar Westheffer of Kansas City, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Parvin, gave several piano numbers. The society will meet next Friday with Mrs. John Bookman at her home, on East First street.

WOODSON SMITH SUITS SETTLED.

Insurance Suits in Which Former Maryville Man Was Involved Settled After Several Trials.

All the suits brought by the Woodson Smith Hat company of Kansas City against sixteen insurance companies to collect for damages caused by a fire May 30, 1910, were settled Friday. The Woodson Smith Hat company sued for $52,000, of which $42,000 was for actual damages and $10,000 for interest charges and attorney's fees. Sixteen separate suits were brought. Eight had been tried, the hat company winning six and the insurance companies winning two. The cases have been tried before Judge Lucas.

The ninth case came to trial Friday and the attorneys for the insurance companies offered to settle the entire matter. Settlement was made for $30,827.61.

READY TO ACT SOON

BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS WILL COMMENCE NEGOTIATIONS.

PRELIMINARY DATA HERE

Full Report of Engineers Expected Immediately—Will Ask for Proposition From the Company.

It is probable that actual negotiations between the board of public works and the owners of the city water plant will soon begin. While the board is not yet in possession of the final and complete reports from their engineers, they have received some preliminary estimates, which they are studying, and they hope to soon have complete and definite figures on which to proceed. Mr. McDonald of the firm of Burns & McDonald was here in conference with the board Friday afternoon, and the board expects to have his complete report at an early date.

With this in hand they will endeavor to get a proposition from the water company for the sale of their plant, and, if it sounds reasonable, all hands can get down to brass tacks. The board is proceeding carefully and cautiously and desires to have its information well in hand before taking definite steps.

B. F. C.'s Meet.

The B. F. C. met Friday night with Forrest Gilliam. After the usual business session there was a debate on the subject, "Resolved, that Lee was a greater general than Washington." Goff Crawford and Kenneth Van Cleve had the affirmative and James Gray and Will Hutchison the negative. The affirmative won. New officers were elected as follows: President, James Gray; vice president, Forrest Gilliam; secretary, Will Hutchison; sergeant-at-arms, Charles A. Pen. They will meet again in two weeks with Phil Covert.

Left for California.

Mrs. Ellen Goslee of Oakland, Calif., who has been in the city the past two days on business relative to the estate of her late father, Nathan Goslee, left for her home Saturday morning. She is delighted with her home in the land of sunshine and balmy breezes and would not hear of returning to this changeable climate. She enjoyed her short stay in her former home very much, however, and was glad to meet old friends and acquaintances.

Went to St. Joseph.

Mrs. W. E. Goforth and children went to St. Joseph Saturday morning to spend the day with Mr. Goforth's sister, Miss Lola Goforth, who is taking treatment in a hospital there. They will return to Bolckow Saturday night for an over-Sunday visit with Mr. Goforth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goforth, where Mr. Goforth will meet them.

Senator Aldrich's plan to legalize the money monopoly and the New York bankers' control of the country failed to receive endorsement at the Trans-Mississippi Commercial congress at Kansas City.

Colonel Roosevelt has written an article for the Outlook which is taken to mean that he will be a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency. He bitterly arraigns the attempted prosecution of the trusts by the present administration, and declares the prosecutions should be stopped. It will be remembered that Teddy, when president, vociferated loudly against the trusts, but never did them any harm. Instead of that he permitted the organization of the steel trust, and in the above mentioned article denies that he was misinformed as to its results, and attempts to justify his act. Colonel Roosevelt believes in ruling with the "big stick," but he has very little respect for lawsuits. Mr. Taft, if he knew how, would like to be president. Roosevelt would like to be emperor. The party can take its choice next summer.

TOBACCO TRUST STILL A TRUST.

In the opinion of many students of the trust question the tobacco trust is the victor. That is the real meaning they give the approval by the United States circuit court of New York of the tobacco trust's reorganization plan. The tobacco trust is to remain.

Competition is not restored. The stock ownership is not divided. The actual activities of manufacture and distribution are not even placed under different supervisions. The circuit court politely declines the responsibility of making an order which shall make the business of the tobacco trust fulfill the supreme court's interpretation of the Sherman law. Discussing the possibility of ordering a receivership and the sale of the tobacco trust properties, the lower court says it could not prevent the present owners from bidding in the property if they were so inclined. In other words the tobacco trust is not "busted." Indeed, it is scarcely scratched.

WHAT THE PEOPLE PAY.

The people of the United States pay a subsidy, in artificially high prices, to the wool industry, of at least $104,000,000 a year, according to the calculations of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood, of Alabama, chairman of the ways and means committee of the house of representatives.

"The Payne-Aldrich tax of 61 cents per yard, to say nothing of any increase in tax at it passes to the jobber, makes not less than $104,000,000 paid each year to subsidize the wool industry of America," says Mr. Underwood. "Now, the entire duties actually paid the United States on all imports of woolens and worsteds in 1910, amounted to less than $15,500,000, which means that of the $104,000,000 extorted from the consumers of woolens nearly $90,000,000 went to the wool interests."

"Is it fair or just or right to maintain these enormous taxes unduly to foster the business of less than one-fourth of 1 per cent of the people and to require 99 1/4 per cent to stagger under this enormous burden? I for one do not believe the American people will justify the president in his veto of the wool schedule."

Mrs. G. A. Hartman went to Barnard Saturday morning for a week-end visit with her daughter, Mrs. O. E. Miller.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Christian church served a splendid four-course banquet to the singers after the entertainment in the church parlors. It was a fine social affair, one of the most successful that has been given at this church for some time. Attorney M. E. Ford, bachelor, acted the part of toastmaster to perfection. On introducing some of the speakers he gave expression to a number of things that seemed to weigh upon him at the time, amid the very delightful surroundings, that he may wish to take back on sober second thought. Anyway, he was a success, everybody at the banquet said. Some excellent toasts were responded to by Miss Helen Leffler, Rev. Claude J. Miller, W. H. Charlton, W. E. Goforth, J. R. Brink, H. J. Becker, W. H. Crawford and Mr. Gallagher, that handsome big tenor singer. It is hoped that all the fine things said in the speeches, as a result of the delicious banquet served, will be realized, barring, of course, the Mormonistic tendencies that Toastmaster Ford gave expression to, being unduly excited in the presence of so much loveliness.

BALL ANNOUNCES PLATFORM.

Perennial Gubernatorial Candidate Beives People Should Rule.

Montgomery, Mo.—David A. Ball, who says he will be a candidate for governor of Missouri again, gives out this statement of the platform on which he will make the canvass for the Democratic nomination:

"I am a great believer in the doctrine that the people should rule in all things. Therefore, I believe in the doctrine of the initiative, referendum and recall. I believe in local self-government. I believe that every person should have the right to do as he pleases, providing he does not interfere with the right of any one else. I believe in maintaining the educational institutions of this state and making them second to none in the Union, but not to the detriment of the common schools of the state. I am opposed to the inheritance tax law now upon the statute books of this state, and favor its repeal or amendment, so that an individual can give 5 per cent of his estate to any school that the donor sees proper."

"I believe in caring for to the very best advantage the insane people of the state, furnishing to those unfortunate people the very best medical talent possible and giving them all the comforts it is possible to surround them with. And I believe that this should be done by the state."

Mrs. Jessie Gatton of Clyde was in Maryville Friday and Saturday the guest of her uncle, John Dougan, and family of South Vine street.

Misses Allie and Bertha Best went to St. Joseph Saturday morning to spend the day.

Miss Laura Neal of Pickering was in Maryville Friday visiting her sister, Mrs. A. N. Reece.

Construction of Poultry Houses.

We consider this a timely topic and will give some personal experiences. We have found by inspecting a great many poultry houses, that they are not built with depth enough and are too narrow. Personally we would not advise building less than 12 feet wide, as we have found with the open front houses, it throws our birds too near the front of the building to roost. We had one building 8 feet wide and 28 feet long. It did not prove satisfactory; for the above reason, to half of it we added a 9-foot shed in front, throwing the roosting poles to the back, and using the front for scratching shed. There certainly was an improvement in health and comfort of birds. The scratching shed seemed to make them happy, as they would scratch and sing and lay even better than we had hoped for. We prefer our houses 16 feet deep, as we believe this about right, using dropping boards and giving lots of scratching room. We have some small colony houses 7 feet by 7 feet and 7 feet by 9 feet that are a fine thing, and under ordinary conditions our birds seem comfortable, but when the very cold weather comes the birds with larger quarters, if even a little more crowded, seem the most comfortable and contented. There are a great many different plans for poultry houses, but we have found the 16 by 20-foot houses divided into two rooms the most handy and convenient. Open front, of course.—Mrs. James A. Staples in Missouri Ruralist.

Preventing Hog Cholera.

Much can be done by proper feed and care of hogs to prevent the ravages of the destructive diseases, the better physical condition a hog is kept in, the better able he is to resist the attacks of the cholera germ. If we have plenty of cowpeas and clover pasture for our hogs we are never much troubled by sickness among them. I cannot state that such feed will absolutely prevent cholera under all conditions, yet there is no doubt that it is a strong safeguard. Wherever cowpeas can be grown, every hog raiser should sow a field of them each year. I have never found any feed that will put growth on a bunch of hogs faster than a diet of cowpeas. At the same time they are an excellent soil renovator, and as the hogs do their own harvesting, cowpeas are a cheap crop to raise. The better the soil the better the crop of peas, but at the same time cowpeas can be grown on land too poor for clover, and by growing peas on such land and feeding them off with hogs, the land can be put into condition to get a good catch of clover.

By this means the hogs, the farm and the farmer all are benefited—Court W. Glasow in Missouri Ruralist.

Poor, Dear Girls.

A couple of Charlton girls became infatuated with the idea of having their heads photographed coquettishly stuck through a torn newspaper visited a photographer for that purpose. However, when the pictures were finished they were horrified to behold what they had before failed to notice—the paper through which they had stuck their heads was a Chicago sheet and just beneath their smiling faces was a big display advertisement of a clothing firm, who announced: "Our pants are lined in the seat"—Rosedale Signal.

Says This Will Cure Cholera.

I am old and well along in years, but I am here to tell how to stop the cholera in hogs and that is this: Fill barrel half full of shorts and bran, scald well. Make it on the sloppy order; let it stand until well fermented. Then take one pound of baking soda, pour in, stir and feed, and all hogs that are able to eat will get well. Repeat for three days—Jasper Blair in Missouri Ruralist.

Confessions of a King.

It is told of King George—and there can be no harm in giving the story—that he said to one of the plain men who are his friends as well as his servants on the hills of Balmoral: "If they would only let me live six months here every year, they might do what they like with me for the other six."—Fortnightly Review.

POOR OLD HUMAN NATURE

Old-Fashioned Man Declares When Motorists Are Masked No One Can Recognize Them.

"Human nature, at least as she is depicted in humans, is being sadly relegated to the background," remarked an old-fashioned man who has kept his eyes opened for the last twenty years.

"How so?" asked his young friend.

"Look at yourself and ask that question—if you can. You're a sight with that cap, those goggles, that coat! You and all other motorists, and all these up-to-date persons who have taken to the flying machines, are no more like human beings when you get on your sporting raiment than if you belonged to some queer species of animal. In the good old days of the horse you drove out in your hats and coats and your friends could recognize you. Now you are masked worse than burglars and no one knows one of you from another. Why—look at the women on the streets even! They don't look like the women God made. They are painted and puffed and distorted by dress and those weird looking scroll-like veils until the human face and form are as unlike what nature intended them to be as if she had had no hand in the matter at all. I am not peevish, but I can't help standing up for the good old nature that I love." Whereupon the younger man adjusted his goggles, drew down the visor of his cap, cranked up his machine and prepared to leave.

CONDUCTOR PASSED THEM UP

Two "Ham" Actors Figured a Way to Beat the Railroad, and Succeeded.

There were two comedians who had been stuck in a village near Canton, with Cleveland many miles away. And the first comedian, being the more witty of the two, and being furthermore what they call the "feeder" of the team, says he:

"What'll we do next?"

"I'll tell you—let's count the house." They emptied their pockets and found that by squeezing a cent or two they could manage to buy a ticket to Cleveland. One ticket. They did it, and started forth—the two grown men on a single piece of pasteboard. Of course the conductor kicked.

"There's only one ticket here," he growled.

"That's mine," said one of the actors.

"You lie—it's mine," put in the other, politely.

"Well, you can't both ride on one ticket," said the con. "I'll have to put one of you off the train."

"Me—me!" squealed the actors in chorus. "Put me off—go ahead and do it—I spoke first."

"Well, I can't do it here, but one of you must get off at the next station."

But three local stations passed, and the conductor didn't come back. As a matter of fact, he never appeared until just before Cleveland was reached.

"I think somebody's a grafter," he remarked in passing, "but my orders are to take the safe side when there's a possibility of mistake. Good night, I can lick either one o' you, if I ever see you again!"

Queen of Clubs.

"Ah was to a club meetin' las' night, da's w'y I's late dis mornin', Mis' Foster," explained Imogene, as she removed her outer wraps preparatory to doing a day's washing for Mrs. Foster. "Yas'm, ah had a mighty nice time an' dey lected me seketary of de club by a total miflory. Wat de name of de club? We calls oursel's 'De Circle of de Golden Fleece an' de Yaller Slipper.' Las' night was a special 'caston,' continued Imogene, beginnin' to sort the clothes: 'we was entainin' the mem'rs of a club call' 'De Silver Star an' de Crimson Girdle.' Dere was some raight smart dressin', but I clar, Mis' Foster, dere was no lady present looked putter dan I done mahself in dat gownd yo' give me wif de heliumtrop flowers on it."

Great Alaskan River.

Capt. John Backland, with the four-masted schooner Transit, arrived at Seattle from the Arctic with news that the Kubak river, hitherto believed to be a small Arctic stream, is a mighty river, navigable for at least 300 miles from its mouth.

News of the navigability of the Kubak river was given to those on board the Transit by miners and traders, who for the first time had thoroughly explored its main reaches for a great distance inland.

While they say that it is navigable for good sized vessels for at least 300 miles, it is their opinion that any vessel which could get over the bar probably could make its way at least 500 miles up the stream—Seattle Correspondence Portland Oregonian.

Get Even With Teacher.

Some little girl's in a school near Oklahoma City undoubtedly got "sore" at their teacher and composed a parody on the twenty-third Psalm and left it where she could find it. It runs thus: Miss Blank is my teacher. I cannot talk. She maketh me to sit on the front seat by myself. She leadeth me in the paths of knowledge for her namesake. Yea, though I study my head off, I cannot think of no excuse for she is my teacher. Her rules and her switches confront me always. She prepares a problem for me in the presence of my troubled brain. She filleth my head with rules; my mind runneth over. Surely brain fever and trouble shall follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in the insane asylum forever.

TEXAS RANGERS TO THE BORDER

Ordered to Prevent Mexican Revolutionary Planning on American Soil.

GOVERNMENT EXPECTS TROUBLE

Return of U. S. Troops to Home Stations Held Up Pending Outcome
—Plot to Cross Border Frustrated.

Austin, Tex., Nov. 18.—Two captains of Texas rangers were ordered to the border, with instructions to prevent any activity in Texas toward starting a revolution in Mexico.

These movements were made after a conference between Gov. Colquitt and Ranger Capt. Hughes, who claims to have evidence that part of the preparations for a Mexican revolution are under way in Texas.

At the conference also were Ranger Capts. Fox and Sanders, and members of the state adjutant general's department.

Fox and Sanders were ordered to the border after the conference.

From a heretofore reliable source, it was learned that Gen. Reyes, now at San Antonio, may be placed under surveillance by Texas authorities. The rangers have been ordered to prevent marauding on the American side of the border.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Nov. 18.—Two companies of Mexican cavalry left Piedras Negras, across the Rio Grande from here; one of 90 for Los Vegas, opposite Del Rio, Tex., and another of 80 for Tecas, a small village about 50 miles south of this place.

The precautions were taken to prevent any outbreak. It was reported here that a fight near Tampazos resulted in the killing of several on both sides.

Washington, Nov. 18.—Danger of another well organized and formidable revolutionary movement in Mexico has caused the suspension of the return to their home stations of the American troops sent to the border country during the Madero revolution. The attitude of the United States is one of apprehension of further trouble, against which every precaution is to be taken to assure the strictest neutrality.

Bulletin.

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 18.—An alleged Magonist plot to cross the Mexican border with a force of 100 men, said to be planning to unite with others coming from Macador, Mex., has been frustrated at the last minute by special agents of Mexican Consul Questa, aided by officers of the United States.

ST. JOSEPH DODGING MOTOR TAX?

Special Inspector Sent to Find Out Why so Few Licenses Are Issued There

Jefferson City, Nov. 18.—Secretary Roach has sent a special license inspector to St. Joseph to ascertain why it is that the number of licensed motor cars returned from that city and Buchanan county is only 472, while Kansas City has accounted for 3,126 and Jasper county nearly 800.

The secretary is of the opinion that the local officials of St. Joseph and Buchanan county have not exerted themselves to enforce the motor tax law. He says that the city and county ought to at least return as many licenses as Jasper county.

Work on a Missouri Dam. Hollister, Mo., Nov. 18.—Construction on the White river dam project south of here, in Taney county, has begun. Sixteen barges are used to convey machinery from the railroad station down the river to the site of the dam. A cotton factory will be established by the promoters of the project. The power will be supplied to many cities in this region.

Seize an Aeroplane for Debt. St. Joseph, Nov. 18.—An aeroplane upon which A. J. Pruitt, an inventor, had worked for several years and which is almost completed, has been seized by the sheriff, along with all of the inventor's household goods, tools and machinery, to satisfy claims of creditors. The goods, except the flying machine, were sold at auction.

Price Memorial Board Named. Jefferson City, Nov. 18.—Gov. Hadley has appointed Col. J. D. Ingram of Nevada and M. W. Anderson and Mrs. J. L. Hughes of Keytesville as a board to have charge of the erection of a monument to Gen. Sterling Price at Keytesville, Mo. The last legislature appropriated $5,000 for that purpose.

Start Pythian Home. Springfield, Mo., Nov. 18.—Ground breaking ceremonies at the starting of the new $100,000 Missouri Pythian home here will be held Wednesday. Among the speakers at the exercises will be: Dermon Raleke, Bethany; Dan V. Herder, Slater; Charles J. Kostuba, St. Louis, and Joseph J. Crites, Rolla.

HYDE JURY PANEL IS NOW COMPLETE

Forty-Seventh Name Added After Weeks of Wrangling.

SECOND TRIAL TO BEGIN MONDAY

Judge Overrules All Motions Pending Before Him—Twenty-Two Venires Have Been Drawn, Including 1,060 Names.

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 18.—The 47th juryman was added to the panel in the Hyde case at 4:15 o'clock and the list was completed. The 47 were called into the courtroom and each was asked the correct spelling of his name and his age. Then they were delivered into the custody of the marshal to be returned to the courtroom after the challenges have been made.

The state will scratch 15 names from the panel and the defense 20.

Judge E. E. Porterfield, the trial judge, ordered the attorneys for the state to return their list to the clerk an hour before the legal limit expires.

Then the clerk will deliver the list with the 15 names scratched by the state to the attorneys for Dr. Hyde. The defense will have one hour to strike 20 names from the list.

The defense filed two motions which were overruled by Judge Porterfield. The first was for the court to request the marshal to show the subpoenas and the returns on all witnesses for the state. The second was a motion to quash the panel of 47.

In overruling the motion Judge Porterfield said that he had permitted the deputy marshals to take one man to a store to buy an overcoat and another had been taken to a store to buy a pair of shoes. The relatives of the jurymen, he said, had been permitted to talk with them. Then Judge Porterfield formally overruled all motions to quash the venire and all other motions pending before him.

Frank P. Walsh, chief counsel for the defense, said that he might file a motion for the appointment of elisors or might renew the old motion at any time in the trial of the case.

From all indications, the opening statement of the prosecution will be made Monday. Mr. Reed will make that statement. He will be followed by Frank P. Walsh for the defense Tuesday. Then Wednesday the taking of evidence will begin and the Hyde trial will be going in full blast. The attorneys for the state say they will call practically the same witnesses as were used at the first trial, with perhaps one or two new ones. The defense will have a few new witnesses.

Since the start of the second trial, 22 venires have been drawn from the jury wheel. The venire included 1,060 names. One venire of 100 was quashed by the court, however, and another of 100 was set aside.

A Modern Bookshop Now.

At Chiswick is a little, old-fashioned bookshop which has lately changed proprietorship and is being "modernized," one-half now given up to stationery and the old books being "cleared," no reasonable offer refused. The writer thought it a likely place to pick up a good edition of Pepys' Diary, and asked the dapper little proprietor if he had one. "No, sir; but we have Leit's. Oh, I can assure you they are vastly superior to the old-fashioned sort—." And as the writer fled he heard shouts of "Insurance coupon" and "Wages table" hurled after him.—London Chronicle.

The Way It's Done.

"Doctor, I want you to look after my office while I'm on vacation."

"But I've just graduated, doctor. Have had no experience."

"That's all right, my boy. My practice is strictly fashionable. Tell the men to play golf and ship the lady patients off to Europe."

Ivy at a Funeral.

Standing beside a coffin containing the body of her husband, Mrs. Charles Buhland of Indianapolis carried out his last requests. Dressed in white, she sang two hymns, read his requests and delivered a brief eulogy.

Buhland did not want any crepe at the door and he insisted that no black should be worn in mourning for him. He wanted his wife to dress in white. He desired that in the place of somber decorations there should be flowers and other symbols of joy at the funeral.

Buhland was 52 years old and was ill a year before he died.

Fitness.

"Do you think Mrs. Garish's fine plumage looks natural and proper to her style?" said the envious woman.

"Entirely so," replied the woman who is sarcastic. When she puts on one of those elegant ostrich feathers she looks like the original ostrich."

Her Habit.

"I don't like the woman you made me take out to supper. She has such a way of pinning you down."

"That's merely a force of habit with her. She's a dressmaker."
